

OREGON BOOK AWARDS
2010/2011 Guidelines for Special Awards

As part of the Oregon Book Awards, Literary Arts offers three awards that recognize significant contributions to Oregon's literary culture:

- The Charles Erskine Scott Wood Distinguished Writer Award is presented to an Oregon author in recognition of an enduring, substantial literary career. Past recipients include George Hitchcock, Ken Kesey, Ursula Le Guin and Barry Lopez.
- The Stewart H. Holbrook Literary Legacy Award is presented to a person or organization in recognition of significant contributions that have enriched Oregon's literary community. Past recipients include Kim Stafford, Barbara LaMorticella, David Milholland, Marlene Howard, and Matt Love.
- The Walt Morey Young Readers Literary Legacy Award is presented to a person or organization in recognition of significant contributions that have enriched Oregon's young readers. Past recipients include Carol White, Read to the Dogs, and Jerry Isom.

Nomination Requirements

Nominee must be a full-time, living Oregon resident. Exception: A qualified resident who dies after the submission deadline may receive a posthumous award. Literary Arts staff, board members or advisory committee members are precluded from consideration.

Submission Items

Nominations for the Special Awards are made on the attached entry form and must be accompanied by a written statement in support of the nomination. There is no nomination fee. Nominations from previous years that did not result in an award are not automatically reconsidered; it is recommended that a nomination be updated and re-submitted.

Selection Process

Nominations will be reviewed and recommendations made by the Oregon Book Awards Advisory Committee; their recommendation is then approved by the Literary Arts Board of Directors.

Important Dates

All nominations must be received no later than 5 p.m. on Friday, August 27, 2010. This is not a postmark deadline; late entries will not be accepted. Recipients will be announced prior to the Oregon Book Awards ceremony in the fall, at which they will be formally recognized. Oregon Book Awards is a program of Literary Arts, a nonprofit organization that enriches the lives of Oregonians through language and literature. Other programs of Literary Arts are Oregon Literary Fellowships, Portland Arts & Lectures, Poetry in Motion®, Writers in the Schools and Delve: Readers' Seminars
